

2018 STAV Psychology Teachers Workshop

Program

1:30-2:15pm - Meet and Greet

Light afternoon refreshments provided

2:20-3:00pm - VCAA Science Manager (Maria James)

Key Science Skills and Higher Order Thinking Skills in Exams

3:00-3:55pm - Teacher Workshops:

- 1. Not another revision sheet: Kahli Symons, Yavneh College
Tired of handing out the same old revision sheets which often gets placed in the trash. This session will be a hands-on workshop where you will get to trial a number of interactive ways to run revision in the Psychology classroom.
- 2. Revision in a digital classroom: Mel Vecchio, Melbourne Grammar School
Save time and paper, in this session you will get to explore a range of different online tools to aid in revision and other teacher hacks. Please bring a device to the session, either a computer, a tablet or your phone is fine. Internet access will be available on the day.

4:00-4:10pm – Mind Exhibition Introduction

Introduction from the Melbourne Museum Program coordinator (Elke Barczak) and Jacinta Greer (STAV councillor).

4:10-4:30pm – Mind Exhibition Guided Trail

(sample student excursion with the new trail).

In The Mind: Enter the Labyrinth exhibition, VCE psychology students can undertake curriculum-linked enquiries designed to provoke deeper learning. Students review their findings, and consider appropriate tools to communicate and share their new understanding.

A teacher resource for each unit of VCE Psychology provides a range of topics for your students to explore, as well as suggested approaches to a class visit to The Mind.
